

The Court notes that the Motion to Remand was signed by the Plaintiff Elizabeth M.T. O’Nan only. The other plaintiff in this action, Elizabeth M.S.

O’Nan, is not a party to the motion. In her motion for an extension of time, however, Elizabeth M.T. O’Nan seeks an extension of time for the “Plaintiffs” to file a response. As a pro se litigant, Elizabeth M.T. O’Nan cannot file pleadings on behalf of any other pro se litigant. If Elizabeth M.S. O’Nan wishes to seek any relief through the filing of a motion, she must also sign the pleading.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Plaintiff Elizabeth M.T. O’Nan’s motion for extension of time to file a reply brief in support of her motion to remand [Doc. 39], as amended [Doc. 46] is GRANTED, and the Plaintiff shall have through and including March 6, 2017, within which to file a reply in support of her motion to remand.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the pro se Plaintiffs in this action may not file pleadings on each other’s behalf. If both pro se Plaintiffs wish to seek any relief through the filing of a motion, both Plaintiffs must sign the pleading. Any further pleadings that are not in compliance with this requirement may be stricken from the record.

Signed: February 28, 2017

IT IS SO ORDERED.
